

Ontario Cancer Research Ethics Board N2/CAREB REB SOP Addendum

OCREB has adopted the N2/CAREB REB SOPs. However, in order to reflect specific OCREB requirements, this addendum must be used in tandem with the SOP noted below*.

N2/CAREB SOP 403 – Initial Review - Criteria for REB Approval

SOP Section	OCREB Addendum
5.0 PROCEDURE (paragraph 2)            Following initial review of the research, the REB should be prepared to make a determination as to the approvability of the research.	5.0 PROCEDURE (paragraph 2)            Following initial review of the research, the REB should be prepared to make a determination as to the approvability of the research. In the single REB/multi-centre model, initial REB approval involves the approval of a provincial initial application (PIA) from a lead or provincial applicant (PA), as well as a centre initial application (CIA) from each participating centre. Before assigning a new study/PIA to a CTO Qualified REB, CTO personnel screen the PIA to ensure that the study meets the CTO mandate, that the appropriate institutional representative is listed in the application, and to confirm that the PA has signed the application.
5.1 Minimal Criteria for Approval of Research            In order for the research to receive REB approval, the REB will take the following into consideration, 5.1.2            Any potential conflicts of interest are declared and are managed appropriately to prevent any compromises to the safety or well-being of the participants or to the integrity of the data,	5.1 Minimal Criteria for Approval of Research, also called the Provincial Initial Application (PIA)            In order for the research to receive REB approval, the REB will take the following into consideration (refer also to the Reviewer Guidelines, Forms and Criteria for Approval): 5.1.2            Any potential conflicts of interest at the provincial level are declared and are managed appropriately to prevent any compromises to the safety or well-being of the participants or to the integrity of the data;
5.2 Additional Criteria            New subsection	5.2 Additional Criteria  5.2.3 Minimal Criteria for Approval of a Centre to Conduct the Approved Research:            After the REB has granted provincial approval of a study, each participating centre must submit an abbreviated centre initial application (CIA) for approval to conduct the research. In order for the centre to receive REB approval, the REB will take the following into consideration (refer also to the Reviewer Guidelines, Forms and Criteria for Approval): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Before forwarding the CIA to the REB of Record, CTO personnel screen the application to confirm that the institutional requirements have been met (as applicable), to ensure that the appropriate institutional representative is included in the application, and to confirm that the PI, a department approver and the institutional representative have signed the CIA;</li> <li>• Any potential conflicts of interest are declared and are managed appropriately to prevent any compromises to the safety or well-being of the participants or to the integrity of</li> </ul>
